We celebrate diversity and culture everyday at Del Mar Academy. However, this Friday 19th we make a special celebration to commemorate the Costa Rican culture and richness of so many other cultures infused in our school community.

parties in communities along out country.

The typical dances, performed by the students of the Garza school, are also a colorful and rhythmic display of our traditions.

Thanks to our students and Spanish teachers for our new preventive road signs.

The masquerades that the children painted are and old tradition of the Costa Rican people. It is very common to see children running after masquerades during the Patron Saint

New additions to our school campus

Process of accreditation for our high school

- There has been progress in our bank loans for a new infrastructure.

The school campus has now an Organic Compost Bin large enough to compost all organics from our campus and from our houses. This initiative has the potential to have a great impact in our community's health, since more than 70% of the garbage that goes to our dump is organic material.

If you are interested in purchasing a bin to carry your organics from home, please contact Jessica at jessisheffield@yahoo.com.

Our school rancho is much cooler now after installing 6 new fans...

New Del Mar Website

Field Trips

Our new website is full of beautiful pictures and important information. It is divided in six main sections and eighteen subsections. You can find information about Schedules, Tuition and Fees, Policies and Procedures, Payments, etc.

Please visit our new site and give us your input.
